EXPLORE THE SITE

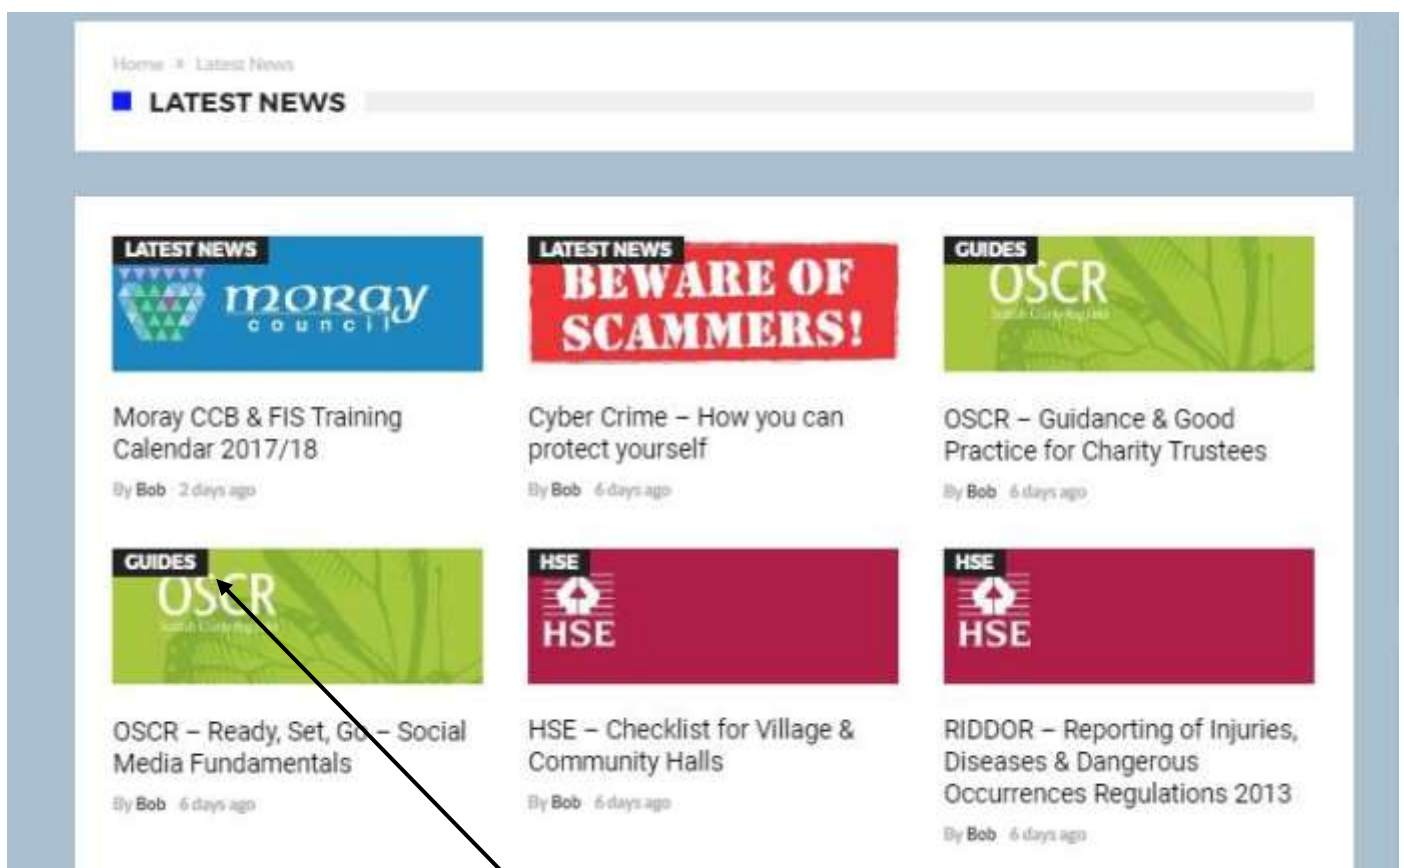

In this section we will explore the website and explain it's features:

- 1) Navigation—all sections of the website are incorporated into the navigation menu, broken down into categories:

Latest News:

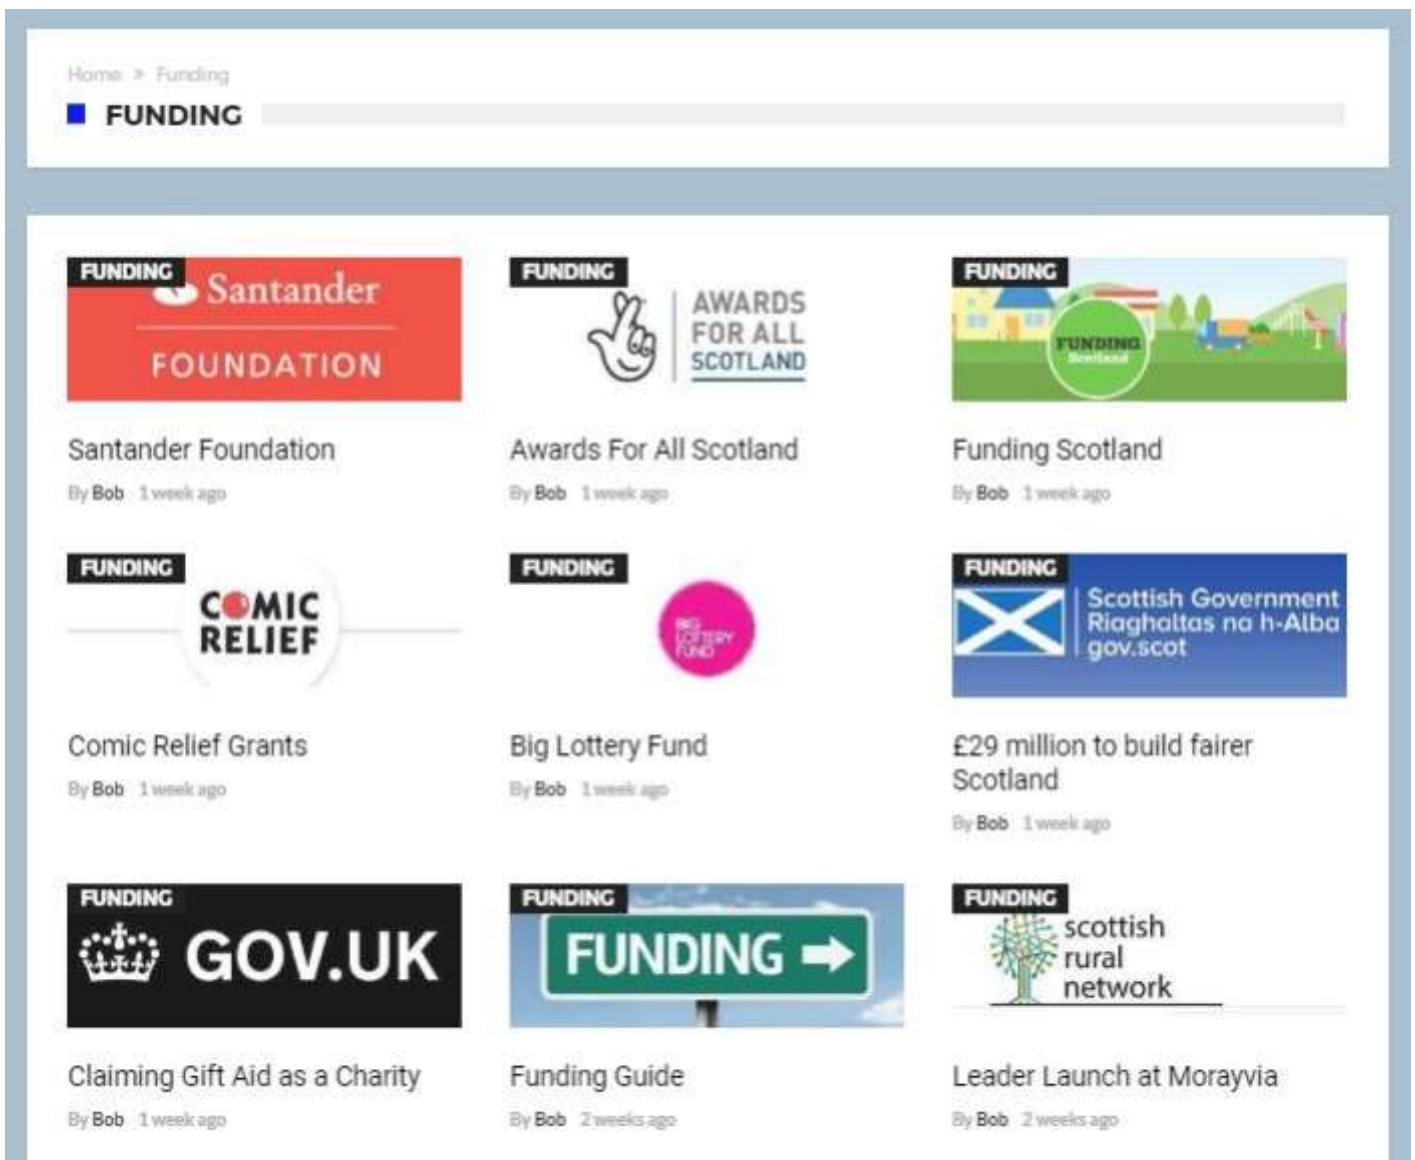

ALL posts will appear here under this heading as they get posted so you can always see the latest content as it appears on the website with the newest posting at the top. Clicking on each post will open to allow you to read the full article.

Each of the articles posted here in the 'Latest News' category have their own categories, specific to their subject matter, e.g.: OSCR for instance (above) has two postings, both have been posted as latest news but are also OSCR Guides, so have been also categorised as 'Guides' and can be found under :- Resources/Guides/OSCR Guides in the navigation menu at top of each page.

Funding:

This category has, as it implies, all of the funding articles and information posted here, but any new posts will also be posted in the 'Latest News' category.

Organisations:

This category has all of the articles and information from third party organisations posted here, but all new posts will also be posted in the 'Latest News' category as they come in to us.

Resources:

This category has anything deemed as a resource posted here, meeting minutes, training calendars, risk assessment checklists, licencing information, performing rights information etc. etc.

Guides:

As you would imagine, if it's a guide, it's in here, OSCR has it's own category where you can find all of their latest guides on running your organisation/charity/SCIO etc.

Diary of Events

As the name suggests, this is the Google calendar with any known events within the membership, so if you are holding an event, let us know. There is also a guide within the link on the navigation explaining, step by step, how you can put your own events onto the calendar. This can also be used to check if your event will clash with a neighbouring event scheduled for the same day.

Contact the MFCHA

As the name suggests you will be able to find all of the contact details, plus contact forms, for the MFCHA Office Bearers and Advisers.

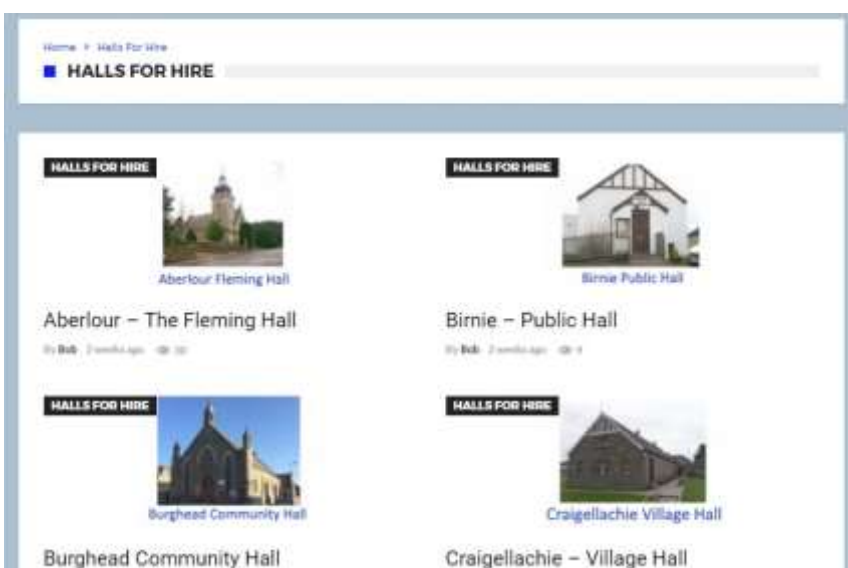

Contact a Member Association or Hall

This is YOUR contact details for your association or committee, available for public viewing, check the details and if need be, contact the Secretary and amend your contact details, THIS NEEDS TO BE UP TO DATE & CORRECT. This is how the public will be able to contact you and your committee. If your hall or association has a website there is also a link to your website within the listing, if you have a website and it is not listed contact the webmaster.

Halls For Hire

This section is where all member halls have the option to display their hall to the public. Providing information on capacity, locale, facilities available, photos, hire rates, contact details etc. etc.

These are shown in 'category view', which means all halls listed appear here in list view and clicking any hall in the listing takes you through to the relevant hall page with all of the details of the hall for hire.

If your hall details are not listed here please contact the webmaster and get it listed.

FINDING INFORMATION

In this section we will explain how to find information within the website:

Search

Entering keywords for the information here will bring up any relevant content on the website.

Tag Cloud

Whenever a new post is published on the website keyword 'tags' are added to the post and these 'tags' show up here, in the tag cloud. Clicking any of the tags within this cloud will display all postings relevant to the tag selected. For instance, if you were looking for the Scottish Water Tax Exemption Scheme but couldn't remember what the scheme were called merely clicking on the tag 'sewerage charges' or 'water rates' would bring up any relevant postings. Nothing on the website is more than a couple of clicks away.
